

a cat is asleep in the warm room .
a dark room needs a light .
a dry towel is warm .
a hungry person eats an apple .
a hungry person is not asleep .
a person uses a light to see at night .
a person uses a spoon to eat .
a person wears a shoe on each foot .
a person without an umbrella gets wet .
a pillow is soft and light .
a shoe is made of fabric .
a spoon is made of metal .
a student asked why a cat is asleep in the warm room .
a student asked why a dark room needs a light .
a student asked why a dry towel is warm .
a student asked why a hungry person eats an apple .
a student asked why a hungry person is not asleep .
a student asked why a person uses a light to see at night .
a student asked why a person uses a spoon to eat .
a student asked why a person wears a shoe on each foot .
a student asked why a person without an umbrella gets wet .
a student asked why a pillow is soft and light .
a student asked why a shoe is made of fabric .
a student asked why a spoon is made of metal .
a student asked why a tired person falls asleep on a pillow .
a student asked why a tree is made of wood .
a student asked why a wet shoe takes a long time to dry .
a student asked why an umbrella is made of fabric and metal .
a student asked why an umbrella keeps a person dry .
a student asked why cold water freezes in the winter .
a student asked why ice is cold and hard .
a student asked why ice is frozen water .
a student asked why ice melts into water .
a student asked why in a dark room we cannot see .

a student asked why rain makes a person wet .
a student asked why sand is dry and soft .
a student asked why sand is warm at the beach .
a student asked why steam rises from hot water .
a student asked why the lamp gives light to the room .
a student asked why the light makes a dark room bright .
a student asked why to stay dry a person uses an umbrella in the rain .
a student asked why water becomes steam when it is very hot .
a student asked why water freezes when the room is cold .
a student asked why we see better when the light is on .
a student asked why we stay dry under an umbrella .
a student asked why we turn on a light when the room is dark .
a student asked why when water freezes it becomes ice .
a student asked why wood is hard and heavy .
a tired person falls asleep on a pillow .
a tree is made of wood .
a wet shoe takes a long time to dry .
an umbrella is made of fabric and metal .
an umbrella keeps a person dry .
at school we read that a cat is asleep in the warm room .
at school we read that a dark room needs a light .
at school we read that a dry towel is warm .
at school we read that a hungry person eats an apple .
at school we read that a hungry person is not asleep .
at school we read that a person uses a light to see at night .
at school we read that a person uses a spoon to eat . at school we read that a person wears a shoe on each foot .
at school we read that a person without an umbrella gets wet .
at school we read that a pillow is soft and light .
at school we read that a shoe is made of fabric .
at school we read that a spoon is made of metal .
at school we read that a tired person falls asleep on a pillow .
at school we read that a tree is made of wood .
at school we read that a wet shoe takes a long time to dry .

at school we read that an umbrella is made of fabric and metal .
at school we read that an umbrella keeps a person dry .
at school we read that cold water freezes in the winter .
at school we read that ice is cold and hard .
at school we read that ice is frozen water .
at school we read that ice melts into water .
at school we read that in a dark room we cannot see .
at school we read that rain makes a person wet .
at school we read that sand is dry and soft .
at school we read that sand is warm at the beach .
at school we read that steam rises from hot water .
at school we read that the lamp gives light to the room .
at school we read that the light makes a dark room bright .
at school we read that to stay dry a person uses an umbrella in the rain .
at school we read that water becomes steam when it is very hot .
at school we read that water freezes when the room is cold .
at school we read that we see better when the light is on .
at school we read that we stay dry under an umbrella .
at school we read that we turn on a light when the room is dark .
at school we read that when water freezes it becomes ice .
at school we read that wood is hard and heavy .
cold water freezes in the winter .
everybody knows that a cat is asleep in the warm room .
everybody knows that a dark room needs a light .
everybody knows that a dry towel is warm .
everybody knows that a hungry person eats an apple .
everybody knows that a hungry person is not asleep .
everybody knows that a person uses a light to see at night .
everybody knows that a person uses a spoon to eat .
everybody knows that a person wears a shoe on each foot .
everybody knows that a person without an umbrella gets wet .
everybody knows that a pillow is soft and light .
everybody knows that a shoe is made of fabric .
everybody knows that a spoon is made of metal .

everybody knows that a tired person falls asleep on a pillow .
everybody knows that a tree is made of wood .
everybody knows that a wet shoe takes a long time to dry .
everybody knows that an umbrella is made of fabric and metal .
everybody knows that an umbrella keeps a person dry .
everybody knows that cold water freezes in the winter .
everybody knows that ice is cold and hard .
everybody knows that ice is frozen water .
everybody knows that ice melts into water .
everybody knows that in a dark room we cannot see .
everybody knows that rain makes a person wet .
everybody knows that sand is dry and soft .
everybody knows that sand is warm at the beach .
everybody knows that steam rises from hot water .
everybody knows that the lamp gives light to the room .
everybody knows that the light makes a dark room bright .
everybody knows that to stay dry a person uses an umbrella in the rain .
everybody knows that water becomes steam when it is very hot .
everybody knows that water freezes when the room is cold .
everybody knows that we see better when the light is on .
everybody knows that we stay dry under an umbrella .
everybody knows that we turn on a light when the room is dark .
everybody knows that when water freezes it becomes ice .
everybody knows that wood is hard and heavy .
ice is cold and hard .
ice is frozen water .
ice melts into water .
in a dark room we cannot see .
rain makes a person wet .
sand is dry and soft .
sand is warm at the beach .
steam rises from hot water .
the lamp gives light to the room .
the lesson today was that a cat is asleep in the warm room .

the lesson today was that a dark room needs a light .
the lesson today was that a dry towel is warm .
the lesson today was that a hungry person eats an apple .
the lesson today was that a hungry person is not asleep .
the lesson today was that a person uses a light to see at night .
the lesson today was that a person uses a spoon to eat .
the lesson today was that a person wears a shoe on each foot .
the lesson today was that a person without an umbrella gets wet .
the lesson today was that a pillow is soft and light .
the lesson today was that a shoe is made of fabric .
the lesson today was that a spoon is made of metal .
the lesson today was that a tired person falls asleep on a pillow .
the lesson today was that a tree is made of wood .
the lesson today was that a wet shoe takes a long time to dry .
the lesson today was that an umbrella is made of fabric and metal .
the lesson today was that an umbrella keeps a person dry .
the lesson today was that cold water freezes in the winter .
the lesson today was that ice is cold and hard .
the lesson today was that ice is frozen water .
the lesson today was that ice melts into water .
the lesson today was that in a dark room we cannot see .
the lesson today was that rain makes a person wet .
the lesson today was that sand is dry and soft .
the lesson today was that sand is warm at the beach .
the lesson today was that steam rises from hot water .
the lesson today was that the lamp gives light to the room .
the lesson today was that the light makes a dark room bright .
the lesson today was that to stay dry a person uses an umbrella in the rain .
the lesson today was that water becomes steam when it is very hot .
the lesson today was that water freezes when the room is cold .
the lesson today was that we see better when the light is on .
the lesson today was that we stay dry under an umbrella .
the lesson today was that we turn on a light when the room is dark .
the lesson today was that when water freezes it becomes ice .

the lesson today was that wood is hard and heavy .
the light makes a dark room bright .
the teacher explained that a cat is asleep in the warm room .
the teacher explained that a dark room needs a light .
the teacher explained that a dry towel is warm .
the teacher explained that a hungry person eats an apple .
the teacher explained that a hungry person is not asleep .
the teacher explained that a person uses a light to see at night .
the teacher explained that a person uses a spoon to eat .
the teacher explained that a person wears a shoe on each foot .
the teacher explained that a person without an umbrella gets wet .
the teacher explained that a pillow is soft and light .
the teacher explained that a shoe is made of fabric .
the teacher explained that a spoon is made of metal .
the teacher explained that a tired person falls asleep on a pillow .
the teacher explained that a tree is made of wood .
the teacher explained that a wet shoe takes a long time to dry .
the teacher explained that an umbrella is made of fabric and metal .
the teacher explained that an umbrella keeps a person dry .
the teacher explained that cold water freezes in the winter .
the teacher explained that ice is cold and hard .
the teacher explained that ice is frozen water .
the teacher explained that ice melts into water .
the teacher explained that in a dark room we cannot see .
the teacher explained that rain makes a person wet .
the teacher explained that sand is dry and soft .
the teacher explained that sand is warm at the beach .
the teacher explained that steam rises from hot water .
the teacher explained that the lamp gives light to the room .
the teacher explained that the light makes a dark room bright .
the teacher explained that to stay dry a person uses an umbrella in the rain .
the teacher explained that water becomes steam when it is very hot .
the teacher explained that water freezes when the room is cold .
the teacher explained that we see better when the light is on .

the teacher explained that we stay dry under an umbrella .
the teacher explained that we turn on a light when the room is dark .
the teacher explained that when water freezes it becomes ice .
the teacher explained that wood is hard and heavy .
to stay dry a person uses an umbrella in the rain .
water becomes steam when it is very hot .
water freezes when the room is cold .
we learned that a cat is asleep in the warm room .
we learned that a dark room needs a light .
we learned that a dry towel is warm .
we learned that a hungry person eats an apple .
we learned that a hungry person is not asleep .
we learned that a person uses a light to see at night .
we learned that a person uses a spoon to eat .
we learned that a person wears a shoe on each foot .
we learned that a person without an umbrella gets wet .
we learned that a pillow is soft and light .
we learned that a shoe is made of fabric .
we learned that a spoon is made of metal .
we learned that a tired person falls asleep on a pillow .
we learned that a tree is made of wood .
we learned that a wet shoe takes a long time to dry .
we learned that an umbrella is made of fabric and metal .
we learned that an umbrella keeps a person dry .
we learned that cold water freezes in the winter .
we learned that ice is cold and hard .
we learned that ice is frozen water .
we learned that ice melts into water .
we learned that in a dark room we cannot see .
we learned that rain makes a person wet .
we learned that sand is dry and soft .
we learned that sand is warm at the beach .
we learned that steam rises from hot water .
we learned that the lamp gives light to the room .

we learned that the light makes a dark room bright .
we learned that to stay dry a person uses an umbrella in the rain .
we learned that water becomes steam when it is very hot .
we learned that water freezes when the room is cold .
we learned that we see better when the light is on .
we learned that we stay dry under an umbrella .
we learned that we turn on a light when the room is dark .
we learned that when water freezes it becomes ice .
we learned that wood is hard and heavy .
we see better when the light is on .
we stay dry under an umbrella .
we turn on a light when the room is dark .
when water freezes it becomes ice .
wood is hard and heavy .